her home on Connecticut avenue, which has been closed to society for several years, owing to the hostess' absence in Europe.

Miss Hester Shepard will entertain in the same fashion, complimentary to Miss Marie Barnes and Lieut. Mark Brooke, whose marriage takes place the following Wednesday.

The Pleasant Players' Euchre Club held its first meeting of the season at the residence of Mrs. John Major, 1116 Florida avenue northeast, Thanksgiving evening. All the members appeared in mask, and after an hour or two spent in fun, all unmasked and played progressive euchre until called to the dining-room, where a bounteous repast was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Landrigan, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garren, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spire, Mr. and Mrs. John Major, Mrs. J. D. O'Hara, and Mrs. John Lewis.

The first of the three notable service weddings of December occurred yesterday at St. Paul's Catholic Church, in this city, when Rev. James F. Mackin, the rector, officiated at the marriage of Miss Helen Calvert Cassin, daughter of Mrs. Joseph R. Cassin, and Maj. John Augustus Dapray, U. S. A. The latter is pleasantly remembered here as adjutant general of the District of Columbia militia, after the Spanish war, and also while acting as aid to the Secretary of War.

The bride, who is regarded as one of Washington's beauties, is the great-granddaughter of Commodore John Cassin, U. S. N., and granddaughter of the famous Commodore Stephen Cassin, of the United States navy, prominent in the war of 1812.

Miss Cassin wore a tailored suit of rich maroon tulle, with hat and feathers to match, and carried violets and orchids.

Miss Clara Beall Cassin was her sister's only attendant, and wore a tailored gown of blue, with light blue picture hat. Her bouquet was of violets and orchids.

Mr. John Leo Cassin, brother of the bride, was Maj. Dapray's best man.

After the ceremony, which was witnessed by the immediate relatives only, breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother.

Maj. and Mrs. Dapray left on the afternoon train for a Southern trip before proceeding to Tallahassee, Fla., where the bridegroom is stationed, on duty as military adviser to the governor of that State.

The marriage of Miss Constance Cleveland Adee, eldest daughter of the late David Graham Adee, and niece of the Assistant Secretary of State, to Mr. Frederick S. Tyler, of this city, son of the late Dr. Walter Bowie Tyler, of Georgetown, took place yesterday at noon at the family residence, 1619 Fifteenth street, in the presence of a small company limited to the immediate relatives of the two young people.

The bride wore a gown of brown velvet, with hat to match, and had as her bridesmaid a large cluster of orchids. Her sister, Miss Lucy Adee, was her only attendant. The latter wore a very pretty gown of flowered chiffon. Paymaster G. M. Adee, U. S. N., was best man. Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, D. D., of St. John's Church, performed the marriage ceremony. Hon. A. A. Adee gave his niece away.

Following the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler left for a honeymoon trip, but will live in Washington, where they have an apartment at the Thomas.

The Baroness Hengelmüller, wife of the Ambassador from Austria-Hungary, entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Mrs. Hubbard, of New York, who is now her guest.
